Dear Sir

Re RB 18942

Your letter to Mr Gage has been referred to me to answer.

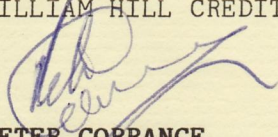

Under the rules for credit betting which you agreed to abide by when opening an account with us, we reserved the right to close an account without giving a reason. We are standing by this and will not divulge our reasons for closure.

You stated that you have rights under the Data Protection Act 1984. That is correct but "a full analysis" of your file is not covered by this act as it is not "personal data".

If called upon to do so, we may give our opinion as to the conduct of your account with us but we cannot be held responsible for the action that third parties may take having obtained the information.

I am sorry that we cannot be of any further assistance.

Yours faithfully
WILLIAM HILL CREDIT LIMITED
